

19" Box

Very lightweight case made from glass-fiber reinforced sandwich panels, suitable to install 19" racks.

We design and produce the ideal size for your special equipment to meet all mechanical and climatic requirements expected during operation.

The container for data communication equipment, can be air-conditioned and is compliant with the requirements stipulated in IP 54. Dedicated for use in depots, during transportation and field operations. References about the applications in Europe and under the harshest environmental conditions in Middle Asia are on file.

